

COMING THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

• A RADIO PLAY •

DEC 4, 6-7, 12, 13, 19-21
SHOWTIMES VARY

Ebenezer Scrooge is a cynical old curmudgeon with little patience for the holiday cheer all around him in New York City during the 1929 Christmas season. After a Christmas Eve visit from several ghosts takes him to a bustling Italian neighborhood, a speakeasy, the docks, and the homes of coworkers and family, Scrooge must confront his own beliefs and discover for himself the true meaning of the holidays.

WRITER'S & DIRECTOR'S NOTE

What originally attracted us to the Spaghetti Western genre is not only the strong impression made by the classic films produced in that era, but also the challenge of taking very visual films, many of which did not even record sound when shooting, but dubbed it in later, and setting it entirely in the auditory world. Beyond that, this genre's exploration of anti-heroes who use the land with no law to justify violent action was an interesting way to explore the nature of violence as means of resolving dispute, both in the American past and, obliquely, the present. We hope you enjoy this first, all original Limelight Radio Play, what we see as the first of many to come.
