

THE FALL RADIO PLAY SERIES CONTINUES:

ALL PLAYS ARE AT 7:00PM AT THE LITTLE WHITE SCHOOL MUSEUM
$8 ADULTS, $6 STUDENTS/SENIORS · TICKETS ONLINE AND AT THE DOOR

Horror abounds in this original adaptation of the 1918 silent German film that travels deep into the cesses of the human mind. A doctor at a Berlin mental asylum tries to get to the bottom of a series of mysterious abductions, but the truth is more shocking than he could ever have imagined.

In this epic conclusion to Limelight's original spaghetti western trilogy, The Ghost finds himself in a border dispute among Mexican freedom fighters, military police, and an army of private detectives, as each fights for control of a valuable silver mine.

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

They say it takes a village to raise a child, but in The Trouble with Harry, It takes a village to solve a murder. This delightfully bizarre mash up of a romantic comedy and a murder mystery takes us through the process of two couples falling in love while hiding a dead body, how romantic!

A huge thanks to Emma Kiser for her meticulous adaptation of the script, to Ginger Simons for all her work as assistant director, to Nancy Schutz for all her preparation on the wonderful piano accompaniment for the show, and to Brian Brems and Julie Kiser for all of their help with sound effects.

Thank you for coming and enjoy the show!

The long shadows and dark hallways of Truman Middle School are the perfect setting for mystery in this teenage noir inspired by classic films. A series of thefts put eighth-grader Casper Keyes hot on the trail of the culprit, but he may be mixed up in more than he bargained for. Try to solve the case along with Casper in this original Limelight mystery.
