As part of our annual spring show, we usually showcase a new batch of One Act scenes that are all connected by one theme. Last year's theme was space with a set of One Acts simply titled Space! This year, we thought it would be interesting to explore films and television through these scenes. As with other One Acts in the past, the majority of these scenes are written and directed by Limelight participants. By taking a film genre or television genre, they have been able to create You May Also Enjoy..., an exploration of entertainment within American pop culture. Along with exploring the genres of these scenes, they have allowed us an interesting and different format that we have not yet explored with One Acts. Ron and Debra, our guides through this unhinged streaming service, allow commentary into this world of pop culture. In spending a night binge watching numerous films and television shows, Ron and Debra experience all that showbiz has to offer them. Grab some snacks, find a good seat, and join Ron and Debra as they chart their way through You May Also Enjoy...!
