DIRECTORS' NOTE

It's always fun to watch our participants form friendships, learn something new about themselves, and what they are capable of both on and off the stage. In the end, the characters in this play find strength in themselves by helping those around them. Hopefully, we all fulfilled that special need if just a little bit as we worked together to create this play.

Thank you, parents, and guardians, for sharing your young actors, student directors, and stagehand trainees with us. All of you who helped with lines, sewed, procured a costume or prop (even if it didn't work out – you gave us options), or drove a participant.
