

COMING THIS SEASON

Trouble in the big city! A few of its most celebrated artists have gone missing, and the reporters at The Morning Post and the police are on the case. At the very top of the list of suspects are a pair of sister scientists, Doctors Vivian and Martha Drake, whose experiments lead some to call them mad. Laughs and scares abound in this show, inspired by 1940s horror films.

Ebenezer Scrooge is a cynical old curmudgeon with little patience for holiday cheer all around him during the Christmas season. After a Christmas Eve visit from several ghosts, Scrooge must confront his own beliefs and isolationism and discover for himself the true meaning of the holidays.

COMPANY NOTE

"You have to understand your best. Your best isn't Barrymore's best or Olivier's best or my best, but your own. Every person has his norm. And in that norm every person is a star. Olivier could stand on his head and still not be you. Only you can be you. What a privilege! Nobody can reach what you can if you do it. So do it."
